

Self Assessment Assignment₀₁

Course Title: Business and Entrepreneurship Lab

Course Code: CSE-402

Submitted To

Parveen Sultana Huda

Managing Director

Ranaissance Consultants Ltd.

Submitted By

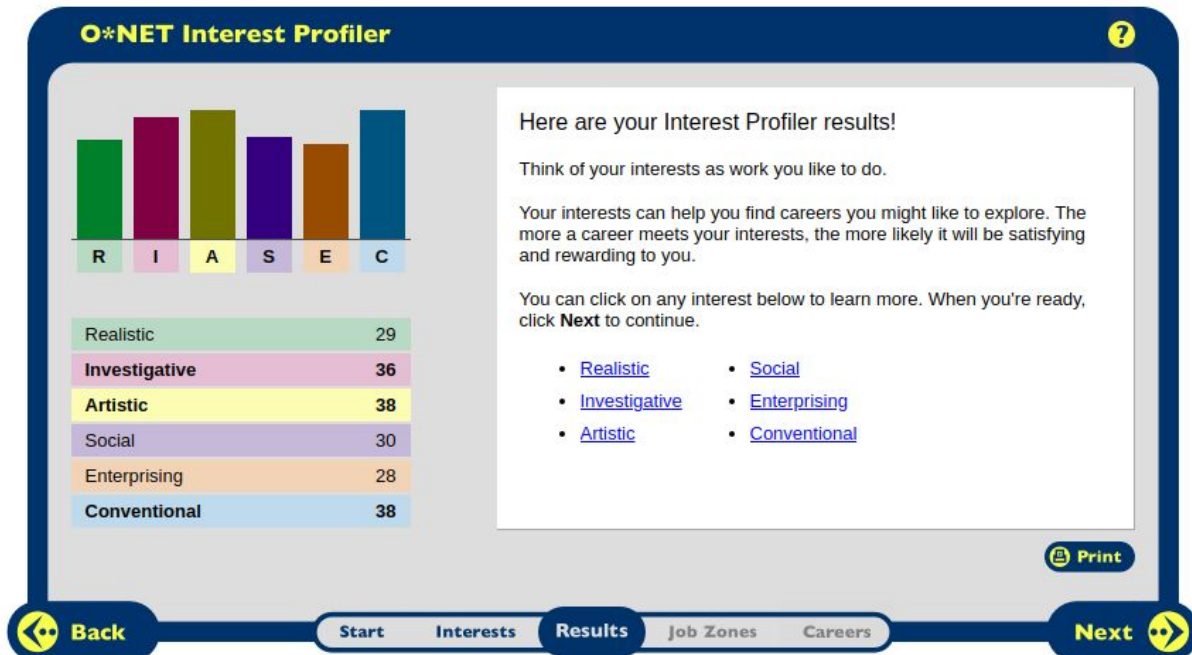

Name : Md. Remon Hasan Apu

Semester: 4th year 2nd Semester

ID: 17101086, Lab: A2/B1

Assessment on <https://www.mynextmove.org/explore/ip>

Graph:

- Realistic : Your interests can help you find careers you might like to explore. The more a career meets your interests, the more likely it will be satisfying and rewarding to you.
- Social : People with Social interests like working with others to help them learn and grow. They like working with people more than working with objects, machines, or information.
- Investigative : People with Investigative interests like work that has to do with ideas and thinking rather than physical activity or leading people.

- Artistic : People with Artistic interests like work that deals with the artistic side of things, such as acting, music, art, and design.
- Enterprising : People with Enterprising interests like work that has to do with starting up and carrying out business projects. These people like taking action rather than thinking about things.
- Conventional : People with Conventional interests like work that follows set procedures and routines. They prefer working with information and paying attention to details rather than working with ideas.

Assessment on Career Personality Profiler

Graph:

- Building : Building jobs involve the use of tools, machines, or physical skill. Builders like working with their hands and bodies, working with plants and animals, and working outdoors.

- Thinking : Thinking jobs involve theory, research, and intellectual inquiry. Thinkers like working with ideas and concepts, and enjoy science, technology, and academia.
- Creating : Creating jobs involve art, design, language, and self-expression. Creators like working in unstructured environments and producing something unique.
- Helping : Helping jobs involve assisting, teaching, coaching, and serving other people. Helpers like working in cooperative environments to improve the lives of others.
- Persuading : Persuading jobs involve leading, motivating, and influencing others. Persuaders like working in positions of power to make decisions and carry out projects.
- Organizing : Organizing jobs involve managing data, information, and processes. Organizers like to work in structured environments to complete tasks with precision and accuracy.

Assessment on <https://www.16personalities.com/esfj-personality>

Graph:

Your personality type is:

Consul
ESFJ-A

Strengths and weaknesses

- Strong Practical Skills : Consuls are excellent managers of day-to-day tasks and routine maintenance, enjoying making sure that those who are close to them are well cared for.
- Strong Sense of Duty : People with the Consul personality type have a strong sense of responsibility and strive to meet their obligations, though this may sometimes be more from a sense of social expectations than intrinsic drive.

- Very Loyal : Valuing stability and security very highly, Consuls are eager to preserve the status quo, which makes them extremely loyal and trustworthy partners and employees. Consuls are true pillars of any groups they belong to – whether it is their family or a community club, people with this personality type can always be relied upon.
- Sensitive and Warm : Helping to ensure that stability, Consul personalities seek harmony and care deeply about other people’s feelings, being careful not to offend or hurt anybody. Consuls are strong team players, and win-win situations are the stuff smiles are made of.
- Good at Connecting with Others : These qualities come together to make Consuls social, comfortable and well-liked. Consul personalities have a strong need to “belong”, and have no problem with small talk or following social cues in order to help them take an active role in their communities.

Career Paths

- Cooperation and No Conflicts : Careers as administrators are a natural fit, allowing Consuls to organize not just an environment, but the people in it. Their practical skills combine well with their dependability, making Consul personalities surprisingly good accountants – though they often prefer to be personal accountants, helping people and interacting with them directly, instead of corporate accountants crunching numbers in some back room.

Being as altruistic as they are, Consuls find it hard to be satisfied unless they know they've done something valuable for another person. This is often the driving force behind Consuls' careers and career advancement, and makes religious work and counseling particularly rewarding.

Whatever they choose to do, Consul personalities' comfort with busy social situations and practical knowledge and skills come together to create people who are not just able to be productive and helpful, but people who genuinely enjoy it.